LONDON BRIDGE.

INTERESTING RECORD OF FAMOUS STRUCTURE.

FROM ROMAN TIMES TO PRESENT YEAR.

Since the earliest times of which we have any record there always seems to have been a London Bridge. The researches of Mr. C. Roach Smith seem to uphold the opinion that during the Roman occupation of Britain a bridge existed on the site of the present London Bridge. Certain it is that a bridge existed in the tenth century, for it is recorded that a woman, being condemned to death for witchcraft and sorcery, endeavouring to cause the death of a nobleman by sticking pins into a waxen image, was drowned at London Bridge for her pains, and William of Malmesbury refers to the bridge when speaking of the Siege of London by Swayn in the year 1004; and in 1016 Canute, according to Stow, on the South side of the Thames caused a trench to be cut, through which his ships were towed into the west side of the bridge, and then with a deep trench, and straight siege, he compassed the city round about, and in confirmation of the truth of this there may be seen in the Guildhall Museum a portion of one of the piles of the trench which was found in Southwark. John Stow, who has many strange stories to tell in his Survey, informs us that the original foundation of London Bridge, by report of Bartholomew Lincolne, alias Fowle, last Prior of St. Mary Overies Church in Southwark, was this: a ferry being kept in place where now the bridge is built, at length the ferryman and his wife deceasing, left the same ferry to their only daughter, a maiden named Mary, which, with the goods left by her parents and also with the profits arising of the said ferry, built a house of Sisters, in place where now standeth the east part of St. Mary Overies Church, above the choir, where she was buried, unto which house she gave the oversight and profits of the ferry; but afterwards the said house of Sisters being converted into a college of priests, the priests built the bridge (of timber) as all the other great bridges of this land were, and from time to time kept the same in good reparations till at length, considering the great charges of repairing the same, there was, by aid of the citizens of London and others, a bridge built with arches of stone, as shall be shewn.

THE PRESENT BRIDGE.

The first stone London Bridge was begun to be built in 1176 and finished in the year 1209, the architect being the same as he who had built the previous bridge of wood, Peter Colechurch, priest and chaplain. He did not live to see the completion, as he died in 1205. Of the glories and tragedies of this bridge it is not intended here to say anything. Volumes might be written afresh, as volumes have been in the past, upon this interesting, perhaps the most interesting, feature of medieval London history. Suffice it to say that, owing to the ever deteriorating condition of the old bridge, it was decided by a select committee of the House of Commons in 1822 to recommend the erection of a new bridge, and an Act of Parliament was passed for that purpose in the following year. The bridge was built after the designs of John Rennie, who died before the work was commenced, and was superintended throughout by his son, Sir John Rennie. The first pile was driven on March 15, 1824, the foundation stone laid by the Lord Mayor, John Garrett, on June 15, 1825, and the completed bridge opened by William IV. and Queen Adelaide on August 1, 1831.

STATISTICS.

The original estimate of cost was £130,000, of which the Government contributed £200,000. The site being altered a further sum of £450,000 was added to the estimate, but the total actual cost was nearly £1,000,000. The bridge consists of five semi-elliptical arches, with spans of 153ft. in the centre arch, 140ft. in the arches adjoining, and 130ft. in the abutment or end arches. The centre arch has a rise above high watermark of 29ft. 6in. The roadway rises 1 ft. 13 in. The bridge has a total length of 910ft., some say a little longer, and the width between the parapets is 53ft. The material is chiefly granite from the quarries of Aberdeen, Haytor, and Penryn. The lamp posts on the bridge were cast of the metal of French cannon captured in the Peninsular War. The contractors for the work were Messrs. Jolliffe and Banks.

The Bridge House Estates, it may be of interest to remark, date from at least as early as A.D. 1127, for in that year, the 2nd of Henry I., Thomas Arden gave the Monks of Bermondsey the Church of St. George in Southwark, and five shillings rent by the year out of the land pertaining to London Bridge.

WEATHER FORECAST AND STORM WARNINGS ISSUED FROM THE HONGKONG OBSERVATORY.

METEOROLOGICAL SIGNALS.

Meteorological signals are hoisted on the mast in front of the Water Police Station, at Tsim Sha Tsui for the information of masters of vessels leaving the port. They do not necessarily imply that bad weather is expected here:—

1. A CONE point upwards indicates a Typhoon to the North of the Colony.
2. A CONE point upwards and a DRUM below indicates a Typhoon to the North-East of the Colony.
3. A DRUM indicates a Typhoon to the East of the Colony.
4. A CONE point downwards and a DRUM below indicates a Typhoon to the South-East of the Colony.
5. A CONE point downwards indicates a Typhoon to the South of the Colony.
6. A CONE point downwards and a BALL below indicates a Typhoon to the South-West of the Colony.
7. A BALL indicates a Typhoon to the West of the Colony.
8. A CONE point downwards and a BALL below indicates a Typhoon to the North-West of the Colony.

Red Signals indicate that the centre is believed to be more than 300 miles away from the Colony.

Black Signal, indicate that the centre is believed to be less than 300 miles away from the Colony.

The above signals will, as heretofore, be hoisted only when typhoons exist, in such positions of moving in such directions that information regarding them is considered to be of importance to the Colony or to shipping leaving the harbour.

These signals are repeated at the Harbour Office, H.M.S. Tamar, Green Island Signal Mast, and the Flagstaff on the premises of the Hongkong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company at Kowloon.

URGENT SIGNAL.

In addition to the above, when it is expected that the wind may increase to full typhoon force at any moment, the following Urgent Signal will be made at the Water Police Station, and repeated at the Harbour Office:—

THREE EXPLOSIVE BOMBS, AT INTERVALS OF TEN SECONDS.

A Black Cross will be hoisted at the same time, superior to the other shapes.

NIGHT SIGNALS.

The following Night Signals will be exhibited from the Flagstaff on the roof of the Water Police Station at Kowloon, the Harbour Office Flagstaff, and H.M.S. Tamar.

I. Three Lights Vertical, Green Green Green, indicates that a typhoon is believed to be situated more than 300 miles from the Colony.

II. Three Lights Vertical, Green Red Green, indicates that a typhoon is believed to be situated less than 300 miles from the Colony.

III. Three Lights Vertical, Red Green Red, indicates that the wind may be expected to increase to full typhoon force at any moment.

No. III. Signal will be accompanied by the Explosive Bombs, as above, in the event of the information conveyed by this signal being first published by night.

These Night Signals will be substituted the Day Signals at sunset, and will, when necessary, be altered during the night.

SUPPLEMENTARY WARNINGS.

For the benefit of Native Craft and passing Ocean Vessels, a Cone will be exhibited at each of the following stations during the time that any of the above Day Signals are hoisted in the Harbour.

Gap Rock.	Aberdeen.
Waglan.	Sau Ki Wan.
Stanley.	Sai Kung.
Cape Collinson.	Sha Tau Kok.
	Tai Po.

This will indicate that there is a depression somewhere in the China Sea, and that a Storm Warning is hoisted in the Harbour.

Further details can always be given to Ocean Vessels, on demand, by signal from the Harbour Office.

THE "NEPTUNE" LAUNCHED.

BIGGEST BATTLESHIP AFOAT.

Portsmouth yesterday put out all its boasting, gave itself a holiday, and poured into the dockyard, at the invitation of the Admiralty, to see the Duchess of Albany christen and launch H.M.S. Neptune, reports the Morning Leader of 1st inst.

The Neptune out-dreadnoughts its epoch-making family in which it is the eighth child—and so is the biggest and most terrible engine of naval warfare now afloat; for the dockyard, proud of its craftsmanship, took good care that its chief d'œuvre should not be marred by the final mallet stroke of the Duchess, and therefore the vast warship took the water, in a way which delighted the multitude who watched her glide down to it. It was wonderfully well done. It looked too easy to be the very fine job it was.

But in the launching of a big ship there is only one axiom which holds good—"One never knows." And those who know most are the most anxious, especially when royalty is there to give the final touch to their handiwork, and the country is looking on to see the result. When the weights are released to fall on the dog-shores, and the vessel hesitates for a second before deciding what to do, that second is very long and tense, for the next may show the splendid climax to many months of planning and labour, or—tragic humiliation.

ENORMOUS CROWDS.

Long before the ceremony the crowds were pouring through the Admiralty yards, and gathered to port and starboard of the new ship. In spite of the gray day the ladies did honour to the occasion with their gayest picture hats and costumes; but the array of full-dress naval and military uniforms put the "creation" on the remnant counter. The Lieutenant and his sisters were there, and the shipwright and his "missus."

A high, expansive, and decorated stand was at the Neptune's prow, and there the nobility gathered who awaited the Duchess of Albany. A little way into this stand the warship poked its huge nose, on which hung a garland of geraniums, white chrysanthemums, and amaranths.

From the launching stand most of the sky and all the world beyond the building-ship was blotted out by the towering bulk of the warship. Its grey and vermilion hull dominated everything, and even shut out the sky. It looked as immobile as the hills. In the cavernous dark beneath the hull sounded fire-off hammers and knockings, and in and out the timbers and dockyard gear around her hundreds of busy shipwrights swarmed. On her deck the sailors were singing shanties—something you never hear in a contractor's yard—and the combined bands of the Royal Marine Artillery and the Royal Marine Light Infantry played sea songs to us; and the gunners, out of sight below the ship kept up their eternal tap-tapping.

Just before eleven o'clock the Duchess of Albany, accompanied by Sir A. and Lady Farnham, drove up to the building slip, where the guard of honour of seamen from the naval barracks and the gunnery school stood at the salute. Her Royal Highness was received by Rear Admiral Alban G. Tate, admiral superintendent, and the principal officers of the dockyard.

Two little buglers, who had to poke up their big white helmets to get their bugles to their lips, ran down the hull from the stand, and the workmen ceased their noise. The chaplain, with a row of medals on his gown, began the religious ceremony.

Little choir boys in white chanted the 107th Psalm, "Confitemini Domino," and then the congregation sang "Eternal Father, strong to save." The ship was blessed.

The bottle of christening wine was cunningly hidden in the garland. The Duchess raised the garland and then let it fall back, shattering the glass, and the wine streamed down the stem. In a resonant voice she cried, "Success to the Neptune and all who sail in her." In the pause that ensued a gong sounded beneath the ship, and out came the workmen tuning. From an oak casket a dainty little mallet and a handsome (but business like) chisel were taken. While Mr. Apsey, manager of the constructive department of the dockyard, held the chisel against the cord holding the weight poised above the dog-shores—her Royal Highness struck. At the second blow the cord flew, and the weight banged in the cradle.

"SHE'S OFF."

For a most tense and silent second or two nothing further happened. Then the quick-sighted began to cheer. "She's off!"

While the band struck up "Rule Britannia" and the crowd was roaring the Neptune gathered way, dropped, and diminished before us, and passed the last of the stagings in a flash of red and grey. The daylight lifted the place where she had been, and the Neptune's bows, the fountains all round, cutswayed to us on the far water.

The crowd was still cheering, the band was playing, and down below our grandstand his majesty was picking up a workman who, while the ship was passing, had fallen from a staging, upon the granite and iron beneath. The people in the stand were divided between the big, new war craft in the distance, dropping her anchors for the first time, and the workman who was being carried away below, his upturned face very dreadful.

"Ah," said an old shipwright, sadly, who stood beside the "Leader" representative watching the procession with the injured man; "ah, now she's all right. She wasn't going to be satisfied with woe."

"I say," said the "Leader" visitor, surprised. "I say she wasn't going to be satisfied with yellow wine. She wanted the real thing. Now she's all right." The ancient usage of which that bottle of colonial wine hidden in flowers was but a refined and polite survival, was betrayed by that old shipmaker. Out on the water the boats were busy saving the guests which had come from the slips.

SPECIALITIES OF THE NEW SHIP.
Nobody outside the Admiralty is really aware of the Neptune's specialities. The officials have refused all particulars. Even her length and beam have to be guessed at. She is 530 ft. long, has a beam of 84 ft., and her displacement is over 20,000 tons. Her propelling machinery will be turbine, and will give 21 knots, with 25,000 i.h.p. She will have, like the other Dreadnoughts, four propellers and two rudders. Her armour will be very similar to that of her sister ships, but it is known that it will be more effective. Her armament will be, of course, on the all big-gun principle—ten 12-inch guns—but that, too, will be bettered from the experience gained in arming her sister ships. The five barbettes in which the guns are mounted are to be placed so as to give a more effective fire. The Neptune has her armament disposed so as to give a broadside of ten guns (against the Dreadnought's eight). The Neptune can fire eight guns astern, and six ahead. Her anti-torpedo armament consists of 47, another improvement on the Dreadnought.

CALCUTTA'S SLUMS.
MISERABLE ACCOMMODATION FOR EURASIAN POOR.

The exhibition rents which obtain in Calcutta, says the Statesman, have been the topic of much discussion and of many theories, but the problem has been chiefly considered in relation to the housing of the European middle classes and the fairly well-to-do Eurasians. In their case the rents bear so large a proportion to the incomes of the tenants that the effect of costly housing must be to lower their standard of living. Persons who can afford to occupy a whole house are becoming fewer. Hundreds have to sacrifice domestic privacy and take in a lodger to share the cost even of a flat. But great as these inconveniences are, they are trifles in comparison with the shifts to which the Eurasian poor are being driven by the growing dearth of the miserable accommodation with which they have to be content. Yet this poverty-stricken class, which has all the symptoms that are associated with chronic indigence, is a section of the community which will derive no benefit whatever from the Improvement Scheme unless their special needs are ascertained and provided for.

A HUMAN WARREN.
To take the case of the miserable folk who are to be found in large numbers between Dhurumtolla and Bow Bazar, the broadening of Bechook St. will be of no advantage to them, but rather the reverse. To the extent that the street is widened and flanked by larger buildings the space behind will be contracted, so that those who live there must either take up less space or go elsewhere. The district in question is a human warren. The whole ground is covered thickly with buildings, pucca or catcha, and is intersected only by narrow lanes, about 9 feet wide, which wind so tortuously as to deprive the densely packed population of any breeze which may be blowing. Already every available inch is put to full use and yields its full value, and more in rent for the owners, and in equal and ill health for the people. One shudders to think what would happen if the same population is condemned to live in still narrower limits.

INCREDIBLE OVERCROWDING.
After giving some typical case the writer proceeds:—A somewhat striking proof of the straits to which the poor are driven is the case with which rent can be had for the most abject accommodation. In one miserable dwelling a man, wife and 4 children are living. He earns Rs. 30 and pays Rs. 10 in rent. Adjoining, however, his room is an enclosure whose original purpose it would be difficult to guess. Its size is 9 ft. by 5 ft. and it is 4 ft. high. This is the bed-room of a woman lodger and her daughter, who pay Rs. 4 for the dubious privilege of sweltering in this narrow chamber.

It must not be forgotten that in this country even the poor must have servants. In one room 12 ft. by 7 ft. live a woman, her daughter, ill with fever, her son-in-law, and a boy of 11. There is practically no space to move in, scanty as the furniture is. The good lady herself has to sleep in the passage, and in a corner is the bath-room. The rent is Rs. 6, but 8 annas must be paid to a mehter, 8 annas to a bhishi, and Rs. 4 to dholi. It may be added that the only ventilation of the room is through a barred window 2 ft. by 2 ft.

In many instances the people are too poor to be able to afford even a country bed. There is one wretched lower flat, rented at Rs. 12, where a boy earning Rs. 30 is the only bread winner. The 6 children, whose ages range from 18 to 6, occupy the two beds, and the mother sleeps on the floor, which is obviously damp. In another, where a woman keeps house for her uncle, father, child and brother, all sleep on the floor except the aged father.

The overcrowding is sometimes carried to incredible lengths. In one compound in Chattri Lane eight families are established. They have one sanitary convenience, one bath-room, and one kitchen between them. One of these families consists of 12 persons and there sleep in two bed-rooms 14 ft. by 14 ft. by 7 ft. The rent is Rs. 9. A still more shocking case is to be found in another warren adjoining with women and children. Here in one room sleep and eat 4 grown-up men (the eldest aged 35) and 6 children.

DISEASE.
But it would be tedious to continue the recital of these painful facts. Only a few typical cases have been described, and anyone who is interested in the question from a sociological, sanitary or economic point of view can easily fill in the picture which is presented by the slums of Calcutta.

The people themselves have the qualities which might be expected from their surroundings. Good health is impossible, and such conditions, and in most of the tenements some one is ill or has just made a bad recovery from illness. The ladies look as if the difficulty of forty people bathing at one tap had been insuperable. Their common indoor attire is a long white garment which resembles a dressing-gown. The children are mostly in rags and both vermin and skin diseases abound.

The men are chiefly employed on casual jobs. They are often out of work, and when in work earn only from Rs. 30 to Rs. 50. How far this chance employment is due to their own want of steady application, or to the inconsistent character of the employment is not clear.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realised from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way. Prompt and faithful in every contract or engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that is refused to unstable or tricky competitors. In the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. Even a child or a dog soon learns to distinguish between real friends and foes in disguise. A humbug may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood and cures Anemia, Scrofula, Debility, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It stands in the front rank in the march of medicine. It is a scientific remedy and a food, with a delicious taste and flavour. No slow or doubtful action. "It cannot disappoint you." Sold by all chemists.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1909.

MACAO'S DECLINING TRADE.

The keynote of Mr. R. F. C. Hedgeland's (assistant-in-charge, temporarily, of the Lappa Customs Station) report for last year is the steady declining position of Macao as an entrepot of trade—a fact which intrudes itself upon the most casual student of events in the Farther East and which appears to be of slow recognition by the Ministry for the Colonies in Lisbon. Mr. Hedgeland introduces his annual report with a succinct narrative of events concerning the decadent Portuguese port. He is appreciative of the endeavours exerted by the retired Governor, H. E. Senhor Alves Rodadas, who in his comprehensive programme of reform which it was his purpose to carry out in Macao, recognised the necessity of enlisting Chinese sympathy and co-operation. For the figures relating to the trade of Macao in 1908 and the acting Commissioner's pertinent observations on the factors contributing to the decline of Macao, we present Mr. Hedgeland's own statistics and comments. He writes:—
The net value of the trade passing the stations for the year 1908 reached a total of Hk. Tls. 18,167,775, an advance of Hk. Tls. 1,058,288 over that for 1907 and of Hk. Tls. 2,783,130 over the total for 1906. To a very great extent this increase over the total of the previous year, in which imports share to the extent of Hk. Tls. 9,843,445, is due to a higher valuation in various descriptions of goods (opium, for instance, has risen 50 per cent. in value) and an increase in the importation of rice, the varying but always considerable importations of which show a generally deficient home supply depending in intensity on the uncertain results of local crops. Assuming it to be correct to accept the figures denoting the total value of imports and exports as a reliable indication of the condition of trade, since they include amounts attributable to the import-tion of cereals, which varies from year to year without regard to general progress, it is worthy of note that the importation of rice has excluded from the net values of trade for 1907 and 1908, the increase of Hk. Tls. 1,058,288 is changed to a decrease of Hk. Tls. 200,722. It would be dangerous to dogmatise in anything connected with the trade passing the Lappa stations, which is always bound to be affected by various causes producing abnormal variation, such as bird crops and the general perturbation caused by the unsettled climatic and financial conditions of the neighbouring districts on the mainland; but so far as the present outlook is concerned there are no signs that the course of trade in this district will show any extraordinary development.

Among the causes operating against any development of trade may be mentioned the substitution of the steamer for the slow and old-fashioned junk, whereby a considerable amount of cargo from the Luchow prefecture, which formerly reported at the Lappa stations, now reaches Macao from Kwangchowwan direct, and the gradual removal of trade from Macao. The

DECLINE IN THE TRADE OF MACAO which has been very marked of recent years, is an unfortunate fact, and the reasons relating to this question merit special consideration. The tendency towards extinction of the tea trade, the drawing by several important mariners of supplies from Canton instead of Macao; the absence of a good harbour, due to the silting up of the approaches to the port, are all factors which contribute to the diminution of the prosperity of the colony, and unless present conditions are altered it is difficult to see how trade can improve. Conflicting reports have been circulated as to the intention of the Government in respect to this important matter; but my information, from a source which should be reliable, gives me reason to think that the assumption of office as Governor by His Excellency Colonel Rodadas, who in a successful campaign in Africa showed himself possessed of great power of personal initiative, will bring about the improvement in the fortunes of the colony which is being counted upon. A commission, consisting of high Government officials, native gentry, and leading merchants, was appointed during the year to consider the causes of the decline which has taken place in Macao's trade and to propose remedial measures. There still remains uncertainty as to the exact nature of the decisions arrived at, but it is generally understood that the improvement of the harbour by means of jetties, dredging, and other engineering works is to be urged as a matter of supreme importance. The advantages of the

GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION OF MACAO will never be fully realised until the long-existing impediment to direct communication with the sea for deeply laden vessels has been entirely swept away. The nature of the work and the obstacles to be overcome are very great, and a growth of trade will not be obtained without severe struggles with existing circumstances and hard work on the part of those interested. That trade in this district would be largely affected by an increase in the prosperity of Macao is self-evident; to declare otherwise would be to betray a want of knowledge of the relationship that exists between the colony and the Lappa stations. Frequent and urgent injunctions from the Viceroy to exercise increased vigilance for the prevention of the

IMPORTATION OF ARMS AND AMMUNITION into China have been received during the year, and exceptional measures have been adopted with the desired object in view. An event of importance was the assumption by this office during the year of control over the numerous junks which fish in and around Chinese waters. These junks, about 5,000 in number, are registered and licensed at the Harbour Master's office at Macao, and registration is now insisted upon by this office as well, the register being at the same time a license stating the number of old-fashioned arms allowed for self-protection but forbidding the carriage of arms of precision. At the request of the Salt Commissioner the policy hitherto adopted by this office of non-interference with salt has been abandoned, and during the year 573 piculs of unrefined salt were seized and forwarded to the Shakti Salt Bureau. Work on

THE SUNNING-YEUNGKONG RAILWAY, the construction of which is due to the enterprise of the native merchants of the Sunning district, among whom are to be numbered many returned emigrants from America and Australia, has proceeded apace. It was originally decided to construct the railway from Sunching to Samkai, a distance of about 40 miles, but owing to various objections raised by the inhabitants of the former village, this scheme was changed, and Kungyifow was decided upon as the northern terminus. Of the 21 sections into which the line is divided, 19 have already been opened to traffic; the section from Kungyifow to Luning, a distance of over 16 miles, in January; that from Sunning to Sekow in July; that from Sekow to Fungling in August; and that from Hongkong to Chunglow in September. Of the two sections still to be opened, the one to Towsan is almost ready, two or three bridges alone remaining to be completed. Work on the other section, from Towsan to Samkai, the southern terminus, is delayed pending a settlement by the provincial authorities of the question of purchase of land in the neighbourhood, as owing to the rumour that Samkai is to be opened to trade, landowners in this district are demanding high prices before consenting to part with their holdings. Between Kungyifow and Towsan there are at present six trains, running daily. The traffic receipts during the year amounted to over $128,000, and an increase in collection is confidently expected to follow on the opening of the section from Towsan to Samkai. Damage to the extent of some $60,000 was done to the line during the floods in August.

The picture of Macao's present-day position and future prospects is not overdrawn by any means, and unless the powers that be in Portugal awake to a sense of their duty and obligations and allow the local administration sufficient latitude to to carry out, without further loss of time, the project for the salvation of Macao, the fate of the neighbouring Colony as a trade centre is for ever doomed. In H.E. Senhor Eduardo Marques, the present Governor, Macao possesses an administrator who has given tangible proof of his ability to govern a colony as its affairs should be administered, and were the Ministers to neglect their duty to Portugal's ancient possession in the East any longer, the blame will attach to the Home Government for culpable neglect of what may prove its last opportunity to regenerate the destinies of the earliest European settlement in China.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE French mail of the 28th September was delivered in London on the 27th inst.

MR. E. R. Hallifax returned from leave yesterday and took his seat as First Magistrate in the Police Court to-day.

It is stated that Prince Tsai Hsin intends to send delegates to France to purchase some ships and also to study their construction.

THE Admiralty announce the appointment of Surgeon C. H. Daws to the Widgeon, and Surgeon A. B. Cox to the Driftmaster, undated.

OWING to his many enemies in the Government, ex-Viceroy Tien Chuan-hui has declined to accept office on the plea of illness.

MR. TAO JU-LIN, Acting Councilor in the Waiwupu, has been dispatched to Manchuria to arrange a settlement of pending questions there.

MAJOR H. de T. Phillips, R.G.A., in command of the Hongkong Singapore Battalion, R.G.A., receives early promotion to his lieutenant-colony.

THE Waiwupu, it is said, is experiencing great perplexity as the foreign diplomatic representatives in Peking have raised side issues in the Yuet-Han Railway Loan question.

AFTER consultation with the Imperial Residents in Lhasa the Peking Government has decided to create the post of a Commissioner of Education and a Commissioner of Foreign Affairs in Tibet.

THE third annual dinner of the "Past and Present Buffs" will take place on Oct. 28 in the Victoria Restaurant, London, when a good turnout of the regiment is expected. The last year's functions were most successful and quite justified such pleasant reunions.

MESSRS. F. W. Barker and Co. of Singapore, have received a telegram from the head office of Landsdon Rubber Estates, Ltd., advising them that the directors, at a board meeting held on the 19th inst., have declared an interim dividend of 10 per cent. payable to shareholders on the register on November 1, next.

THERE was a large attendance at Messrs. Patrick and Simpson's rooms, Leicester-square, on 28th ult., to witness the disposal of a collection of scarce postage-stamps, including a North Borneo, 1891-92, 6 cents on 8 cents green, with "postage" only (one of the very rarest stamps of this country), which realised £10 10s.

THIS evening at the Union Church Literary Club, Kennedy Road, Prepared Speeches on various subjects will be delivered by Messrs. P. H. Holyoak, E. F. Acott, and E. Gaster, to be followed by a discussion; during which coffee and fruit will be served. All members are requested to attend. The chair will be taken at 9 p.m. sharp, by Mr. F. Browne.

THE wedding of Mr. H. Schroeder, of the Tong-shan Cement Works, with Miss Salotti was celebrated at the Russian Consulate, Tientsin, on the 18th inst. The bride had just arrived that morning from Denmark via Siberia. In connection with the happy event, says the P. & T. Times, Count and Countess Ahlfeld held a tiffin in the Astor House Hotel, when covers were laid for twenty guests.

A QUESTION OF COSTS.

DISCUSSION IN THE SUMMARY COURT.
In the course of a summary action at the Supreme Court this afternoon, Mr. Otto Kong Sing, for the plaintiff, asked for the cost of the day owing to innumerable postponements.

Mr. Reader Harris (for defendant)—Ten dollars will do, my Lord? I understand it is the usual practice in this Court to fix the costs of the day at $10. I have it on the authority of my friend Mr. Goldring, who had a similar case some time ago.

Mr. Kong Sing—No, my Lord. I will tax the costs.

His Lordship over-ruled Mr. Harris' suggestion.

RUGBY.

The following players have been chosen to represent the Club against H.M.S. Tamar, on Friday next, 29th inst., commencing at 5.15 p.m.:—Messrs. Shaw, Carroll, Kilby, Oliver, Gill, Christie, Clarke, Lester, Blackmore, Walter, Robertson, Hoare, Conroy, Heathcote, and McIntosh.

M. P.'S CRITICISMS OF SIR FREDERICK LUGARD.

"HONGKONG TELEGRAPH'S" PROTEST.
ENDORSED BY LONDON JOURNAL.

The following is from the London & China Express of 24 Oct.:

We note that one of our Hongkong contemporaries makes a forcible protest against the action of an obscure member of the House of Commons, in seeking to misrepresent the attitude adopted by His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard with respect to the anti-opium measures in the Legislative Council. The member in question, a Mr. Bennett, deliberately declared that "In Hongkong there had been some measure of progress, although it had met with the utmost opposition from the Imperial servants of this country." And yet it is a fact that a good many people in the Colony have accused Sir Frederick of robbing these anti-opium measures through the Legislative Council. They have alleged that he has ignored the interests of the Colony in his anxiety to carry out the wishes of the Imperial Government. We may endorse the protest of the Hongkong Telegraph, which truly describes his Excellency as being between the devil and the deep sea.

CANTON DAY BY DAY.

MR. FAIRBANKS IN CANTON.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Canton, 27th October.

Mr. Fairbanks, the ex-vice-president of the United States of America, arrived here the other day, and accompanied by the American Consul-General at Canton, he called on H.E. Viceroy Yuan Shu-hsun, who received the distinguished visitor at 10 o'clock this morning. H.E. Yuan has visited Mr. Fairbanks to luncheon at noon to-morrow and there will be also present the Foreign Consul at Canton as well as the Tartar General, Admiral Li Chong and the Commander-in-Chief of the Kwangtung Land Forces, Chuan Ping Chik. At 2.30 this afternoon, at the invitation of the Canton Young Men's Christian Association, the distinguished American visitor delivered a lecture in the Canton Medical College; there was a large attendance.

STREETS INUNDATED.

In consequence of heavy rains yesterday, many streets in the western suburb of the city were under water for some time in the morning. On account of the excessive rain, a shop, No. 10 Lok On street, in the vicinity of Yau Lan Moon, collapsed at 12.35 p.m. yesterday. Two men were buried under the debris. Assistance was promptly rendered by the people in the neighbouring shops to recover the two unfortunate fatals; one of them was already dead and the other in a serious condition when extricated. There is little hope that the latter will live.

OPIMUM.

From the 1st day of the 9th moon the Canton Prepared Opium Company has increased the price on prepared opium by four candareens per tael.

FLOODS.

Telegrams have been received from the districts of Waichow, Taang Shing, Tung Kun and Kwai Shu reporting that floods have occurred in these places after the typhoon of the 20th inst. The despatches appeal for assistance to relieve the sufferers by the Shan How Kuk and the Central Relief Committee. From the present outlook of affairs it appears that the districts along the West River suffered most from the floods after the typhoon.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

On the 25th instant at Wonghsa; two men had their hands and legs badly injured by an incoming train approaching the station. The men are now under medical treatment by the Canton Red Cross Society.

ELECTRIC TRAM DERAILED.

CAR DELAYED FOR HALF AN HOUR.

As a result of the heavy rains which have fallen during the past week, an electric tram coming from the direction of East Point was this morning derailed near the New Law Courts, as a consequence of which the car was delayed for about half an hour. It appears that the fluted nature of the tram-lines was responsible for the accident. The car-driver was too late in using the emergency brake, as a result of which the car derailed from the track causing considerable damage to the lines. Fortunately, no casualties occurred and the car proceeded on its journey without further mishap.

SALES IN CHINA.

In answer to a communication, Vice-Consul-General Stuart J. Folger, of Hongkong, reports as follows concerning the trade openings for sales in China:—If manufacturers make a small safe that can be sold at a low price, it would be possible to build up in South China a considerable business. The purchasing power of the Chinese is very low. There might be an opening for articles of this kind to sell to Chinese pawnshops. These are flourishing institutions in China, usually occupying the best buildings in a Chinese town, and taking elaborate precautions to safeguard the property entrusted to them. A business in safes would require cultivation and energetic handling, preferably by a house with connections throughout China. Hongkong is the port of shipment and consignment for about 90 per cent. of the foreign trade of China, and is the distributing centre for South China. The export and import houses maintaining offices here do business in all the Treaty Ports from Peking to Foochow, and most of them have their own offices or connections in these ports. There are no duties in the port of Hongkong. Safes shipped into China pay a duty of 5 per cent. ad valorem. The safes used here up to the present time have been largely of the kind that lock with a key. The objections to combination locks, as stated by firms handling safes, are deterioration due to the excessive dampness of the climate and the difficulty of having such locks repaired.

THE WEISMANN PROSECUTION.

DECISION RESERVED.

The case was resumed before Mr. J. R. Wood in the Police Court this morning in which the Café Weismann is being prosecuted for an alleged contravention of the Liquors Ordinance dealing with adjunct licences. Detective-Sergeant O'Sullivan prosecuted and Mr. Eldon Potter, instructed by Mr. Crowther Smith (of Messrs. d'Almeida and Smith), appeared for Messrs. Weismann, Limited.

His Worship briefly dealt with the points raised by Counsel.

A "boy" in the employ of the Café Weismann stated that he had served as a waiter with the defendants for about a year. He had always been instructed not to serve drinks to customers without meals. Notices to the effect were hung up at the bar, pantry and near the entrance facing the road. On the 1st instant, two Europeans came and asked for Pilsener beer. Witness asked them if they would have cakes or sandwiches and they replied "Yes, sandwiches." Witness brought a plate of sandwiches and two beers on a tray. After quarter of an hour, another customer came and sat at a table near by. He asked for nothing except Kupper beer, and when asked if he would have sandwiches served with the beer, he insisted upon having beer only. Witness did not serve him. The two previous customers conversed with the latter and called for three beers. Witness consulted the "tailor" who instructed him not to serve the third customer but only those who had called for the beer. On being questioned by Counsel, witness declared he was certain that the "tailor" had given him instructions not to supply drinks to customers without meals, which he always observed.

His Worship (To witness)—They say that you brought the sandwiches without their having called for any?—They say so. I don't. Then when they say they did not call for sandwiches, they are telling an untruth?—Yes. They say you did not bring the sandwiches and beer on the same tray?—I did.

What are your instructions—not to supply beer unless food is eaten or is asked for?—I ask the customer what he wants and if he says alcoholic liquor, I supply him with sandwiches. Mr. Potter having addressed the Court, his Worship reserved his decision.

A WILL DISPUTE.

MOTION BEFORE THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

Before the Hon. Mr. W. Ross-Davies, K.C., (Acting Chief Justice) at the Supreme Court, this morning, Mr. H. G. Calthrop, instructed by Mr. W. B. Hinds (of Messrs. Brutton and Hett) moved on behalf of Ke Fai Shan, the executor of the will of Ip Chuk Kai, for an order that the letters of administration of the estate of the deceased Ip Chuk Kai, left unadministered and with the will attached, granted by the Court on the 26th April, 1909, to Ip Lu Kwan, be revoked and declared null and void.

Counsel stated that the citation was served and the letters of administration were brought by the solicitors, on whom the notice of motion was served in the ordinary way. The solicitors had communicated with Ip Lu Kwan, concerning the proceedings but the latter would not appear.

His Lordship—If you will satisfy me with a further affidavit as to the position of this man, then I will consider your motion according to its merits. Counsel concurred and further argument was adjourned for a fortnight.

VICTORIA RECREATION CLUB.

FORTHCOMING REGATTA.

The crews for the Chairman's Challenge Cup of the V. R. C. regatta were drawn last night at the Club-house. There are altogether six crews which will be captained by the following gentlemen: Messrs. C. A. C. Rodrigues, H. Rapp, J. A. S. Alves, L. A. Musso, A. E. S. Alves, and L. E. Lammer. The race will probably be rowed off in heats. It was decided that each crew should get their own cox. All the entrants have been stroking for crews in former V. R. C. Regattas, with the exception of Mr. Rodrigues who is a new hand at it. Still it will be remembered that the first time he stroked a crew was in the Griffin's Race last year at the Hongkong Regatta, when his crew was composed of inexperienced men, yet they put in a grand race and won easily. Mr. Rodrigues' crew for the forthcoming meeting should do well. The lightest of the six crews is that represented by Mr. J. A. S. Alves.

The crews for the Chairman's Challenge Cup are:—

- 1.—C. A. C. Rodrigues ..... Stroke.
A. V. Barros ..... 3

THE TRAGEDY AT HARBIN.

CHINESE SYMPATHY.

[By courtesy of the "Shuang Po."] Peking, 27th October.

When Prince Ito was fired at at Harbin, he was standing by the side of the Russian Minister of Finance (M. Kokovstef).

The Korean shot him in the head and Prince Ito dropped down mortally wounded.

The assassin then surrendered himself.

When inquiry was made for his proper name and the clan to which he belonged, he declined to make any answer.

On learning of the tragedy, the Central Government directed the Ministers of the Waiwupu to proceed to the Japanese Legation and offer to Mr. Ijuin, the Japanese Minister to Peking, the Government's sympathy.

The Japanese Consul at Harbin (Mr. T. Kawakami) and the manager of the South Manchuria Railway, who were standing close to Prince Ito when he was fired at, were both wounded and not killed (as) first reported.

STAMP DUTY IN CANTON.

AN UNFOUNDED RUMOUR.

[By courtesy of the "Shuang Po."] Peking, 27th October.

There are rumours in circulation in Peking that on account of the imposition of stamp duties in Canton, the tradespeople have gone on strike.

When the Prince Regent became aware of the rumours he caused instructions to be despatched to Viceroy Yuan Shu-hsun at Canton to bring about a cessation of the strike. [Needless to say, the rumours are not founded on fact.—Ed., H.E.T.]

HARMSTON'S CIRCUS.

POPULAR OVATION GREET HARMSTON'S LOVE TRIO.

Last night, the stay of Harmston's Circus in the Colony, which had nightly delighted, though not large, appreciative audiences, was brought to a close by a grand complimentary benefit tendered to Mrs. Harmston-Love. The performance was under the distinguished patronage of Commodore Lyos, whose party arrived at the Circus shortly after ten o'clock. Although the state of the weather was not particularly conducive to a visit to Kennedy Town, several members of the Hongkong Gymkhana Club arrived at the spacious tent at an early hour, which was ample testimony to the popularity of the talented combination of star performers over whose destinies the genial "Colonel" presides. The feature of the evening was the sensational performance of a local resident, who entered the tiger's cage and drove two fully-grown tigers harnessed to a chariot, and was deservedly applauded. The bare-back riding of the Harmston-Love trio again proved an immense success, at the conclusion of which the trio were accorded a tremendous ovation with floral tributes thrown in. The inimitable Eminent also brought down the house with their musical eccentricities and received a handsome bouquet at the conclusion of their performance. The other turns were of the usual high standard of excellence, foremost among which were the juggling tricks of the Brothers Kavanagh and the trick cycling of the Sidney Brothers, Novell, the "Mirthful Mimic," and the clowns must not be forgotten. It is needless to enumerate the several other turns, but suffice it to say that they were one and all excellent. The company left by the s.s. Austria to-day for Singapore.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

A meeting of the Legislative Council was held in the Council Chamber this afternoon. Present: His Excellency the Governor, Sir Frederick Lugard, K.C.M.G., His Excellency Major-General R. G. Broadwood, C.M.G. (Commanding the Forces), Hon. Mr. F. H. May, C.M.G. (Colonial Secretary), Hon. Mr. F. A. Haselind (Attorney-General), Hon. Mr. P. N. H. Jones (Director of Public Works), Hon. Mr. F. J. Bodeley (Captain Superintendent of Police), Hon. Mr. A. W. Braid (Registrar General), Hon. Dr. Ho Kai, M.B., C.M.G., Hon. Mr. W. J. Gresson, Hon. Mr. Wei Yuk, C.M.G., Hon. Mr. F. Osborne, Hon. Mr. E. A. Hewitt, Hon. Mr. Murray Stewart, and Mr. C. Clementi (Clerk of Council).

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

FINANCIAL MINUTES.
The Colonial Secretary laid on the table Financial Minutes Nos. 47 to 50. It was agreed that they be referred to the Finance Committee.

NEW MEMBER.
Mr. Hazeland took the statutory oath of office and his seat at the Council.

LIQUOR LICENCES.
The Resolution under Section 6 of the Liquor Licences Extension Ordinance, 1908, was not proceeded with.

AFTER THE GALE.

His Excellency the Governor, in referring to Financial Minute No. 50, said: "I may interest the members of the Council to know what has been done. On the 22nd the Calchas brought in beer and signalled also at Gap Rock to the effect that there was a large number of dismasted junks to the south-west and the west of Gap Rock. We immediately sent out the David Gillies, which was hired from the Dock Company. She left at 2 a.m. the same night in order to arrive on the scene at daylight the following morning. She brought in 52 men from the various junks and brought in tow one junk. At the same time I applied to the Commodore asking him to give assistance. He sent out two destroyers and brought in two junks and gave rice and water to the various crews. Next day two destroyers went out and brought in three more junks and gave rice and water. On the Monday further reports reached us from Gap Rock that there was a number of derelict junks floating about. I again communicated with the Commodore and on Monday night he sent out two destroyers and the Calchas. They have not yet returned. They took 300 lbs. of rice each and the Stinky, which was passing on that day to make her usual fortnightly trip to Gap Rock, also took 300 lbs. of rice. The hire of the David Gillies cost $500 and 2,700 lbs. of rice cost $113, and the Financial Minute now before the Council is for that amount. I may also say that the Telemaque brought in eleven men and the Mathilda six junks, which is a most creditable performance (Applause). The Helios also brought in sixteen men and I have just heard that the Quinta towed a junk into safety (Applause). Other vessels have brought in other junks. The total is 82 men saved and 11 junks (Applause)."

MR. CARTER'S RETIREMENT.

Hon. Mr. E. A. Hewitt asked the following questions of which he had given notice:—

1.—As it is understood that Mr. A. Carter, Sanitary Surveyor, has been retired from the Government service, will the Honourable the Colonial Secretary inform the Council when this official first received notice as to his being pensioned?

2.—Is it not a fact that Mr. Carter was at home on leave for nearly a twelvemonth in the full belief that he was to return to this Colony and that within five weeks of the date of the expiry of his leave (as shown in the Civil Service List) and when he was on the point of leaving England to take up his appointment here he was for the first time informed by the Colonial Office that his services were no longer required?

3.—Will the Government, taking into consideration the fact of Mr. Carter's good service, and that owing to his age he is now no longer eligible for obtaining fresh employment in a Government or municipal office, recommend to the Secretary of State that under the exceptional circumstances of the case Mr. Carter be granted a special pension of say £150 p.a. or as an alternative an offer of re-employment here on similar conditions to those of his former post?

4.—In the event of the Government being unable to agree to this will His Excellency consent to refer the question as now raised to the Secretary of State?

The Colonial Secretary replied:—

1.—Mr. Carter first received notice of the intention to place him on a pension in a letter from the Colonial Office dated the 28th of July. It is a fact that Mr. Carter went home on a year's leave on 1st September, 1908. He applied for three months' extension of that leave prior to the intimation above referred to conveyed to him on 24th July and he has been granted an extension of his leave of two months.

3.—Mr. H. W. Just of the Colonial Office in a letter to Mr. Carter dated the 14th of last September wrote: "With regard to your request for a special pension I am to observe that you have been granted the abolition allowed under the regulations for addition of office and that it is not possible to consider the grant of a special pension."

4.—The point has already been placed before the Secretary of State. The Government has already considered the possibility of employing Mr. Carter in some capacity and should a suitable vacancy arise his claim to re-employment will not be overlooked. (Applause.)

PRAYA RECLAMATION SITE.

Hon. Mr. M. Stewart, pursuant to notice, asked:—To whom, for what public purpose, and for how long has the plot of Government ground between the New Law Courts and the Praya been let?

The Director of Public Works said:—This ground with the exception of the strip between ately in front of the Hongkong Club (temporarily occupied by Mr. Chen A. Tong for work in connection with his contract for the New Law Courts has been let since 1st December, 1906, to Messrs. Sang Lee & Co. for their work in connection with the contract for the Post Office. The ground is to be cleared on 3 months' notice in writing from the Director of Public Works.

Mr. Stewart:—Will the Government undertake to have the plot in question cleared and made presentable as soon as it is no longer necessary to the work on the Law Courts and the Post Office so that it will not remain in its present untidy state?

His Excellency the Governor:—I think it would be desirable if you gave notice of that question. The present intention is to clear the plot as soon as it may be, but I should like to have notice of the question.

SUBSIDIARY COINS.

Mr. Stewart gave notice that he would, at the next meeting of the Council, move: That in the opinion of this Council the issue of a new subsidiary coinage at par would not be successful unless the use of all other subsidiary coins were prohibited within the Colony and that, in the circumstances, it is undesirable to deal with the matter except as far as a comprehensive scheme of local currency revenue.

PRINCE ITO IN MANCHURIA.

PROSPECTIVE RESULTS OF THE TOUR.

In view of the tragedy at Harbin on Tuesday, which culminated in the assassination of Prince Ito by a Korean fanatic, the following from the Shanghai Times will be read with melancholy interest:—The present trip which Prince Ito is making in Manchuria is one of the most significant events in Far Eastern affairs. Notwithstanding official statements issued as to the private character of the trip, the Japanese newspapers, according to news of confidential telegrams, are already discussing the results of the trip as to the economic relations between China, Russia and Korea in Manchuria. Japan has frequently expressed adherence to the policy of the "open door" in China, but we are afraid that the interpretation of this phrase means with her, as with other nations, an open door to exploit China. In other words, China must not close her doors to any nation, but must allow each one in its turn to gain what it can. Manchuria is one of the richest portions of the Chinese Empire, and an open door into its resources means the entry upon an avenue leading to great wealth. It is largely an undeveloped country, and in this respect differs from any other part of China. It will be much easier to mould this growing country into a shape agreeable to outside influence than would be possible in the older and more thickly settled parts of the Empire. Prince Ito's experience in the rapid changes which have come over his own country during the last two generations, and his recent experience in the denationalization of Korea, give him exceptional qualifications for the formation of an expert opinion as to the present conditions and future probabilities in Manchuria. "It can be taken for granted that these opinions will be used by a patriotic statesman like Prince Ito for the furthering in Manchuria of the interests of his own nation. While Japan is thus using her best instrument for measuring the situation in Manchuria, we regret to say that China is allowing affairs to drift along and take their own course. There is no part of the Empire at the present time where statesmanship is so imperatively demanded as in Manchuria. It would be well if China could make a similar move to that of Japan, by sending such a man as Yuan Shih-kai, or Chao Kuo-hsun, to travel throughout Manchuria and submit a report. The present Governor of Kirin Province, H. E. Chen Shao-chang, made an able report some time ago, but this was largely devoted to the consideration of the Chiao-tai incident. Governor Chen is a man thoroughly familiar with Manchurian affairs, and would make an able assistant to a High Commissioner, if such an officer were sent to Manchuria.

CHINESE PORK.

Public opinion has concerned itself lately with the introduction of the carcasses of pigs from China for consumption in Britain. The public are assured that the pigs in question are fed differently to the ordinary pigs in China, and are, in fact, specially bred, fed, and selected for the British table. We are told, in fact, that these pigs are fed on rice, and are therefore cleanly nurtured animals. How a Chinaman can afford to feed his pigs on rice and compete in the British or any other market with pigs from other countries is a question beyond our power to understand, and we may at once say, we refuse to believe. We would as soon believe a man in this country should state that he fed his pig on bread, for rice is to the Chinaman what bread is to Europeans. Rice is, moreover, not so plentiful in China as those acquainted with the country would seem to believe. China cannot grow enough rice to satisfy the demands of the people, for rice has to be largely imported from Indo-China, Siam, and other rice-producing countries. That the farmers in China can afford rice as the staple food for pigs is unfathomable. Were such a diet commercially possible, moreover, the value of rice-fed pork as a food is questionable.

It is well known that no European in China will knowingly eat locally produced pork. To those who know how the pigs in China sustain life, for they get nothing more than bare sustenance, it is not to be wondered the pork is looked at askance. Pigs are naturally supposed to be dirty feeders, but surely the Chinese pig is the dirtiest of all. However, many things are said to be changing in China, and the pig appears to be one of them. Can the Chinaman change his ways or the pig his chow?—may well be asked by those who know China. In the advertisement connected with this new commercial enterprise the pig will no doubt be said to have done so, but the Chinaman can no more afford to give rice to his pigs than we can afford to throw pearls before swine.—Journal of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene.

THE NAVY LEAGUE ANNUAL.

THIRD YEAR OF ISSUE 1909-10.

The Navy League Annual was to make its appearance on Trafalgar Day, October 21st, as hitherto. This year the publication of this work, which has now become a national institution, has been undertaken by the famous house of John Murray, Albemarle Street.

The control and editorship remain in the able hands of Mr. Alan H. Burgoyne, the founder of the Annual, and he has this year secured the collaboration of some of the most eminent writers of the day.

Part II, which contains a series of articles upon current topics, will prove the feature of greatest interest.

These articles are as follows:—
"The Navy and the Empire." By Lord Kitchener.

"The Naval Policy of Germany and her Relations with England." By Graf Ernst von Reventlow.

"The French Need for Capital Ships." By Maurice Loir, Secrétaire Général de la Ligue Maritime Française.

"Notes on the Trend of British Battleship Design." By "Naval Constructor."

"The Mastery of the Pacific." By Satori Kato.

"The Personnel of the German Navy." By Hector C. Bywater (Berlin).

"The Popularisation of the Navy." By Alec Mitchell.

"The Evolution of Submarine Vessels." By Maxime Laubeuf, late Chief Constructor to the French Navy.

"Neglected Warship Types." By "Blue Peter."

Mr. Alan Burgoyne, besides contributing an exhaustive analysis of international naval strength, writes seven chapters on the progress of the British and foreign navies during the last twelve months.

Mr. Oscar Parker has charge of the illustrations, and amongst the vessels he will portray are the battleships Vanguard (British), Huen (Japanese), Mitsubishi (U.S.A.), Form (German), Henschel (Dutch), Perseus (Russian), the armoured cruiser Blücher (German), the scout Boudier (British), and Yodo (Japanese); and the latest British submarines D1, in addition to the above, there will be views of several projected battleships and of the latest French and Italian submarines. Mr. Parker will also contribute elevation plans of the battleships Vanguard, Form, and Mitsubishi; the armoured cruiser Kurema (Japanese), Waldeck (Russian), Blücher (German), and San Giorgio (Italian); the scout Bristol (British) and Zone (Japanese).

Part III, which contains voluminous descriptive lists of every fighting ship in the world, a table of all vessels of the Dreadnought type, a table of all vessels of the Pre-dreadnought type, a list of the chief naval guns, with full ballistics and detailed descriptions, a table showing the evolution of the British battleship from the floating battery of 1845 to the Hercules of 1911; and finally, a complete table of every dock, floating or stone dry dock, throughout the world, having a length of 500 ft., a beam of 82 ft. at entrance, and a depth over all of 26 ft. Mr. Alan Burgoyne has devoted an immense amount of time on the work this year, which it can confidently be stated will be a vast improvement over all previous issues. The book, which should be ordered at once, can be obtained at any bookseller's. The price remains as before—cloth bound, 2s. 6d.; set in library edition de luxe, 12s. 6d. We strongly urge everyone to order the library edition, which is beautifully bound and would form a handsome and acceptable present to anyone for any occasion.

VETARZO BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD.

This remarkable compound, the result of the latest developments and experiments of modern chemistry, pharmacology, and therapeutics, is without equal in all cases of defective nerve power, whether induced by worry, over-work, unhealthy climate, dissipation, excess, youthful imprudence, or other influences incident to the wear and tear and haste or overstrain of modern life. Sleeplessness, trembling, palpitation, nervous dyspepsia, low spirits, mental and bodily prostration, muscular and local weakness, general and nervous debility, fatty nutrition, premature decay or deficiency of the vital forces, impaired vitality, harassing dreams, night disturbances, sudden starting, dimness of sight, defective hearing, loss of memory, inability to perform the various duties of life, or to enjoy its pleasures, restlessness that can settle to nothing, irritability of temper, female complaints, hysteria, painful periods, backaches bearing down sensations, nervous headache, wasting disease, night sweats, and all other phases of brain and nerve exhaustion, are successfully combated by this highly scientific preparation. Based on the system generally, it gives tone to the exhausted nerves, arrests all weakening wasting discharges, involuntary losses, etc., restores the falling energies, and imparts new life and vigour to what has so recently seemed worn out, "used up," and valueless.

VETARZO BLOOD MEDICINE.

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of poverty, impurity, or other impaction of the blood from whatever cause arising. No sooner is it imbibed into the system than it permeates and penetrates to the minutest capillaries, overcoming and expelling the virus of disease, wherever and in whatever form met with, removing all blotches, pimples, scurf, scabby eruptions, and glandular swellings, discolorations, roughness and unsightly patches. Its effects are almost magical in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, pains and swellings of the joints, discharges, secondary symptoms, eczema, lepra, psoriasis, bad legs, bad breasts, abscesses, ulcers, sores, gonorrhea or Syphilis, etc., it improves the general health, and quickly removes long-standing bronchitis, asthma, and hacking, stimulating, spasmodic cough, too often the precursor of consumption.

CAUTION.—Ask for "VETARZO Brain and Nerve Food" or "VETARZO Blood Medicine," whichever is required, and see that you get them, as unprincipled vendors often try to palm off inferior preparations (usually their own manufacture) for the sake of extra profit. Price in Hongkong, 1/6. Every genuine bottle of these medicines bears the British Government Stamp with the words "VETARZO MEDICINES" impressed thereon, in white letters on a red ground, by direction of His Majesty's High Commissioners. Registered Trade Mark "VETARZO." Legal proceedings will be taken against persons pilfering.

COMMON SENSE IN A NUTSHELL.—A new medical work on the cause and most scientific and efficient means of self-cure ever discovered for nervous exhaustion, depression of spirits, want of rest and energy, and with practical observations on marriage and full directions for removing certain disqualifications that destroy the happiness of wedded life. It also treats on urinary derangement, secondary symptoms, stricture, etc., and no sufferer should fail to procure a copy. Post free in plain envelope on receipt of Postal Order or cheque from The Vetarzo Remedies Co., 50, St. Paul, London, or of Agents for above medicines. Price 10 pence Post Free.

Agents for India.—TREACHER &amp; CO. LTD., BOMBAY, BYCULLA, and POONA.
